RUSMISEL PLEASED WITH SOCIAL CULTURE CLUB

"The members of the Social Culture club of the High School of Commerce are taking hold of their club work with surprising zeal," says Principal Rusmisel. "I visited their club yesterday and found them discussing things that are really worth while, and I was glad to note the interest and enthusiasm which seemed to predominate the well filled room. The subjects of the Consumers' league relating to morals, especially in the public dance halls; the care of clothing, and the sanitation of the kitchen and alceping apartments were taken up. The papers that were given upon these topics showed careful preparation and study. Each fidence and experience in addressing an the body goes to Lincoln Saturday to vertisement.
